U.S. PATENT
APPEALS &
INTERFERENCES
OCT 20 2003

Sir:

This is a reply to the Examiner's Answer mailed from the United States Patent and Trademark Office on April 7, 2003. This paper is submitted pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.193(b)(1) within the two-month statutory period. The Examiner's Answer responds to the Appeal Brief filed by Appellants on January 21, 2003 in accordance with 37 C.F.R. §§ 1.191 and 1.192.

The Appellants' reply is for the limited purpose of addressing the objection to the drawings found on page 3 of the Examiner's Answer, which states:

"[a] proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required to reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance."

Specifically, the Examiner's Answer states that the drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims 40, 63, 64, and 68.

Issues 1 and 2 of Appellants' Appeal Brief, filed January 21, 2003, contain arguments that claims 40, 63, 64 and 68 comply with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. § 112, first paragraph.

Appellants: Drzaic et al.
Serial No: 09/289,507
Filing Date: April 9, 1999

The Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences will determine, in issues 1 and 2, whether claims 40, 63, 64 and 68 are supported by the specification. Appellants submit that the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences' decision regarding issues 1 and 2 of the Appeal Brief will determine whether the drawing corrections or corrected drawings sought by the Examiner are required on remand.

Attorney for the Appellants contacted the Examiner on April 25, 2003 to discuss the Examiner's objection to the drawings, quoted above. During the telephone call, the Examiner, Jimmy Nguyen, agreed that Appellant's did not need to file a drawing correction or corrected drawings to maintain the Appeal. The Examiner explained that this language was reproduced from a previous Office Action and that the Examiner does not require corrected drawings while the case is on Appeal. Accordingly, Appellants understand that the Appeal brief, as it stands, will proceed to the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences.

Conclusion

Since this paper is submitted within the two-month statutory period for reply specified by 37 C.F.R. 1.193 (b)(1), Appellants believe that the present filing necessitates no fees. However, if any additional fees are due, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any such fees to Attorney's Deposit Account No. 20-0531.
